The Newsletter of the Dallas Agility Working Group

October 2022

DAWG Fall Trials

UKI - USDA
Myers Park
October 14-15-16

The UKI trial will be on Friday, October 14, with judging by Meagan Skelton. The runs will start at 8:30 a.m. There will be Day of Show entries for UKI.

The Saturday, Sunday trial will be USDA with David Mueller and Meagan Skelton judging.

We are still needing more people to sign up to volunteer throughout the trial. When the worksheets are posted, please fill in and help where you can.

We need volunteers to help unload the trailer and set up the ring on Thursday, October 13 at 2 p.m. If you are able to help, your participation would be greatly appreciated. Many hands make light work.

We will have the food truck Twin Stacks at the show all three days. They always have a great selection of meats and veggies!

Come One - Come All!

We will have a cook-out at DAWG Ranch on Monday, Oct 10th for our Membership meeting.

DAWG will be providing the brisket. Bring a side dish to compliment the meal – veggies, fruit, salads, and desserts – did I say desserts? We will have water, or you can BYOB.

DAWG DEMO

It's that time of year again, time to start thinking about all things dogs, food, festival and fun!!! The City of Richardson is hosting Pawtoberfest on Saturday, October 15, at Huffhines Park, from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.

Pawtoberfest is a "Special Feature" of Huffhines Harvest Fest, held only on Saturday. Come join us for a day in the park with your pup and friends while sipping craft beer, enjoying delicious goodies from the food trucks, listening to live music, shopping from vendors and participating in other fun activities! Admission is free.

The DAWG demo will be from 10-noon. Set up at 9 a.m.

We need volunteers to run a mini course.

Call TC at: 972-345-0161

Email: tcemail1@verizon.net

Pronto

Lora Seale's PRONTO seems to be too tired to walk, or he is working on scent discrimination, or was he just sleep walking again? Or, maybe there is a treat in there!

At any rate, he seems to like the smell of mom's shoes as he fell asleep!

The Dallas Agility Working Group is a non-profit, show-giving organization that is committed to the promotion and development of dog Agility without regard to breed, pedigree, or kennel club registration.

Judges Bios

Meagan Skelton

Meagan will be doing double duty for DAWG as she is both the UKI and USDAA judge for our October trials. Meagan lives in Fancy Gap, Virginia, and shares her home with three Border Collies and a Mountain Feist Terrier. She also teaches Agility and CU and enjoys hiking, running and whitewater kayaking. Meagan says she loves judging and enjoys watching how the teams tackle each course. "The joy we have running together is what it is all about".

DAWG is honored to have Meagan teach two agility workshops "Foundations of Control Unleashed" the Monday and Tuesday after our trial.

Dave Mueller

Dave Mueller hails from SE Pennsylvania. Dogs, cars and guitars, not always in that order, are the big 3 for me. I am recently retired after 30 or so years in the printing industry.

I have no dogs at home at the moment but volunteer at a rescue. My first agility dog was an SPCA Pit-Mix who retired with his Advanced Performance Dog title at 10-years-old. My other dogs were Beagle/Hound mixes who were multiple champions, up to PDCH Bronze and LAA Silver. At one time we had four dogs and five rabbits living under the same roof.

I was part of 2008 USDAA judging class and have been judging the Starters and Advanced classes ever since. I enjoy watching the young dogs develop before they reach the Masters level. With my briefings, I try to educate the new handlers about the rules of the game so that they can enjoy the sport to its fullest.

Karen Nicodemus' Lark earned her PDCH Bronze at the USDAA Dog Gone Fun trial in Tomball on August 26-28. She only needed one Gamblers Q going into the weekend. Thankfully she got in on her first run of the weekend!

Karen was on cloud nine!

She went on to earn another GTamblers Q-1st, Standard Q-2nd, Jumpers Q, and Steeplechase Q-2nd.

Nominations

DAWG's annual meeting is held in October and nominations will be taken for officers, board, committee chairs, and directors. Consider being a candidate for one of these positions for the year 2023.

This is an opportunity to give back your time and talents to the club. DAWG needs both the energetic zeal and fresh approaches that new members bring as well as the experience and stability of the long time members. To have a successful, healthy club, we need everyone to pitch in. Remember, there's always plenty of help available to lend you a hand for any of the following positions. Volunteering is at the heart of what makes a club viable and fun.

Everyone who has held positions in the past will tell you how rewarding and satisfying it's been, and that you have a feeling of being a crucial part of the club. Talk to the person who has done the job you're considering. They can give you a good idea of what the job entails.

The following explanations will help you think about which position you might consider:

President: The President is DAWG's Chief Executive and presides at club meetings. The President also calls meetings, appoints committees, coordinates officers, committees, Board, and oversees all the club business. Must be diplomatic and able to mediate on a variety of issues, and enjoy motivating members to "take the ball and run with it!" Must have a love for the club and a desire to make the club successful. "If" DAWG ever held a parade, the President would be honored by riding up front on a float.

Vice President: Shall assist the President and be a right-hand person. Run meetings when the President is absent. "If" that parade was ever held, the VP gets to sit on the back of a convertible and wave to the crowd!

Secretary: Keeps a written record of club meetings, handles club correspondence, and maintains a current file of business and legal forms. The Secretary gets to ride a horse in "that" parade.

Treasurer: Collects monies (dues, shows, fun matches, clothing, etc.) and reports on the financial status of the club at meetings. Writes checks for reimbursements, pays show expenses and judges. The Treasurer shall account for all monies received and expended and send in appropriate reports. The Treasurer would be making sure the board members are not throwing away too much candy at the parade!

Board Member: Conducts behind the scenes business and helps decide on items to be brought to the membership. Having a sense of humor and willingness to work with a bunch of nutty people is an advantage. In the fictitious parade, board members are the ones riding on the bandwagon and throwing the candy.

Newsletter Editor: Publish a monthly newsletter which includes items such as training tips, news, brags, announcement, upcoming events, etc. Needs a computer, quality printer, and appropriate software. Must report on all parade activities, take the pictures, write the copy. Must also bug members endlessly for their show results.

Equipment Manager: Without our equipment, we could not do Agility! Does inspections on agility equipment and oversees the maintenance.

PR Chair: Responsible for handouts, flyers, posters, etc.

Demo Chair: Coordinates demos and gets dogs and handlers to participate. Pulls together all aspects of the event. Must be willing to keep a good attitude and smile in spite of rain, flat tires on the trailer, or doggie do-do boo-boos on the course.

USDAA Rep & AKC Rep: Maintains communication between the DAWG and the USDAA and AKC.

Quickly and Without Delay

That is the English meaning of Pronto. So meet Pronto. I've been waiting a long time for this particular pedigree to have one of the pups fall into my hands.

However . . . is there ever a bad time to get a puppy? Well, I guess if you're in the midst of moving to another state, then come down with the dreaded COVID, I guess it is not the best time to also be dealing with a new puppy. But we're doing it anyway because, as I said, I've been waiting a long time for this particular breeding.

Pronto comes from great obedience and agility dogs on his dam's side and an incredible lineup of field dogs on the sire's side. He has all the drive and chutzpah I want in a pup. His breeder is the proud owner of the Tanbark Golden Retriever line. I watched her choose her first Golden out of a litter sired by one of the top obedience dogs in the country - he was also a Champion. Yvonne has chosen her breedings with great care.

Pronto will be an awesome Agility Dog if I can keep up with him or direct him well from behind. He's already been quite the monkey in finding challenging new ways to get to what he wants. Of course, I'll keep you all posted on his (and others) progress and fun.

For now? More packing to do ... PRONTO !

Caddos Favorite Brew

Here comes another Border Collie — Caddos Favorite Brew. His call name is JAX and he comes from the same kennel as Shazam!! and Who Dat. Jax was born on July 20.

Herb hopes he will be as good of a companion as both Zam and Who Dat were. Herb is looking forward to being in "training mode " again with a puppy.

Herb Blase

Frankie

Frankie was a gift for my husband. They are looking forward to doing Fast CAT and dock diving together. Mom might just have to teach the little fella a bit about Agility and do some trick training since he's a smart, bold, sweet, and bomb-proof little pup!

Welcome DAWG's Dogs

Hello, "Rollick"!

On September 21, Ray, Valerie, Hookie and Polka welcomed a new member to the pack. Meet "Rollick", an approximately 2-year-old male Standard Poodle rescue. A woman had spotted him roaming her neighborhood for a couple weeks and—with no "Lost Dog" posters to be seen anywhere—she took action. He was too elusive for animal control to catch; but animal trapper Tabitha Smith had him trapped in just an hour in the garage of a home under construction that he had been frequenting. Check the box for high food motivation! He was taken in by Second Chance Farm of Granbury, where he underwent decompressing, vetting, grooming, neutering (a.k.a. "Operation: Gone Nutz"), and lots and lots of "groceries" to fill out his skin-and-bones frame. His condition indicated he'd been roaming for longer than two weeks. Fortunately he tested negative for heart worm. Valerie spotted the Facebook post of him the morning after he was brought in, still looking very disheveled.

"I'd been looking around for a new dog to start. I couldn't decide whether to go to a breeder or rescue. Rescues are heartbreakingly overwhelmed right now, but there are also so many great, responsible breeders that deserve support... then this guy pops up." She immediately put in an application to adopt him, and got a call back very quickly from Second Chance Farm. Sandi Walker, the owner/manager, was delighted at the prospect of him going to a performance home. He transformed overnight once all the matts and bugs went bye-bye. "When he got groomed and I saw the 'after' pictures, it was like unwrapping a Christmas present," Valerie said. "The groomers at Scruffy to Fluffy—because it took two of them to work through that mess—said 'he is absolutely the most polite, sweet, and gentle boy ever.' They even put a necktie on him to show off his newly-revealed dapperness!" Once he's had time to acclimate to his new home, Valerie plans to get him into classes. "We'll have to see what he does and doesn't already know. More 'presents' to unwrap" and added, "He appears to be no worse for the wear despite the unfortunate circumstance he found himself in. I feel in my heart that he's going to be a super-fun dog."

Valerie Evans

Sad Farwell

Together Forever

*I woke up today hoping it would all be a nightmare—
That I'd find you there, snuggled sweetly in bed,
Your long, deep breaths a soothing start to another day.
Instead, a palpable and painful silence,
My heart bereft where the gaping hole was left.*

*You weren't there, aren't here or anywhere,
And now I'm a little lost, hoping to find you somewhere, knowing you're everywhere.
Born from stardust and turned to tiny ashes; the painful cost of profound love
Is almost too much to bear because I still convince myself I see
Flashes of you standing there—ready to take care—waiting there, for me.*

*You were much like the bravest wounded warrior
Marching on despite the burden on his broken body
Because he still had a job tugging on his hurting heart.
Oh Sammy, yesterday I gave you the gift to disembody—
So your spirit could be free to return to the stars that gave you life.*

*Now your pain is mine to bear, but please, please know I'm deeply aware
Of the sacrifices you made so that I would feel whole while you were here.
You did your job so well, my faithful friend, and so I promised to be there until the end,
But you were only on lend, angels waiting to take you back.
So, when it comes my time, from this earthly body I will ascend,
And fly to heaven to snuggle you at His throne—our new home—together forever.*

SAMMIE

Loving You

*I remember our last moment, right before you said goodbye,
I looked at you, and you looked at me while tears filled up in your eyes.*

*I know it's hard to understand and I would have loved to stay,
But at some point, our name is called, and mine was called today.*

*I'm grateful for your loving care until the very end,
Your choice, however difficult, proves that you were heaven-sent.*

*For nothing speaks of tender love and sacrifice to me,
Than one who's heart was crumbling and yet still set me free.*

*The human term of "putting me down" is wrong, it is releasing,
You gave me the most precious gift when you granted me peace.*

*So I will wait at the Rainbow Bridge until we meet again,
And then it's licks and tail wags for you, the best of friends.*

Katie Sharp

Handsome

Handsome

I had to say goodbye to Handsome, my 14, almost 15-year-old Papillon. He was my second Papillon to compete in Agility, also my very first male dog which I swore I would never have. He was such a momma boy, always happy to see me, jump in my arms to clean my ears and chew on my hair. He enjoyed time with me, can't say that he really enjoyed running Agility. We competed in ASCA, USDAA, Teacup and AKC. His first Teacup trial he got High in Trial. Once he started in Masters, I decided it was time to retire him based on his actions in the ring. Standing at the top of the A-Frame just site seeing, standing at the start line looking at me like I was crazy, not to mention stopping half way thru the weaves with a dazed look like he lost count. I loved my boy and miss him dearly but thanks to him I now love male dogs. He is now in heaven with Hazel, Zoey, Lulu, Cassie, Ginger and Lexi, so he is not alone.

Kristi Brookshire

Rainbow Bridge
forever in our hearts...

Bambi

Bambi

You were always ready to try new things and you loved Agility, but you just thought: 'why go fast when everyone needed time to see how beautiful you were.' From the time I rescued you off the streets of Dallas as a feisty puppy till you passed in my arms at 17, you were the queen of the house and protector of my heart. Till we meet again at the Rainbow Bridge. With forever love,

Chris Swain
