

Excerpt from Amica Helps Zoe

By Sherry Roberts

“Mom says we have to go for a walk every day. She says it’s good for both of us to get outside. But Mom doesn’t have to carry Zoe home every time.”

“Wonder why Zoe doesn’t like to walk.” Mr. Jones scratched his head.

“How sad. You’re going to need to earn her trust.” Mr. Jones scratches Zoe’s back.

“That’s what mom says. I’m going to keep trying to walk her.”

“I wish I could help. All I know is to keep working with her. You’re doing a great job.” Mr. Jones shakes his head.
